Haw. Electric Co.

Contracting Firms

The Hawaiian Electric Co., Ltd., has filed suit against the American-Hawaiian Engineering and Construction Co., Ltd. It shows that in 1902 it sold the defendant certain electric machinery to be used at Hilo. The defendant agreed to pay for it the sum of $2275. L. O. H. Pittsburg, on the terms of half cash on receipt thereof, and the rest in ninety days. The plaintiff paid the transportation, cartage, clearance, etc., bringing the bill up to $2418, but of this sum the defendant has paid only $1478.

In the same year the plaintiff sold to defendant all the material necessary for the wiring of the Watty building, and performed the labor connected therewith. For this the defendant agreed to pay $750, but has paid only $550.

The plaintiff asks for judgment for the balance due, $1170, with interest at 7 per cent., attorney's fees, etc. It further alleges the Bank of Hawaii as garnishee, showing that it has in its possession money and goods belonging to the defendant.

Jacinto Cabral, a native of Portugal, was today naturalized by Judge Dole.
